- You may register a maximum of 22 players in each team for the Knockout tournament, but at least 8 players must be registered to the team they are registered to for the current season (i.e. playing for that team as their usual team).
- Players can be registered to one team only.
- All players on the team list must be registered with active status with the HKHA-WS and had participated in at least two league games during the current season to be considered eligible for Knockout tournament.
- You may not nominate a player from a higher ranking team to play for a lower ranking team.
- You may not change the team list after submission
- The match card for each match must be submitted before the match starts

Matches must start promptly in order to allow sufficient time for penalty shoot-out competition/extra time in the event of a draw. Please ensure your players and umpires are ready at pitch a minimum of 15 minutes before schedule match time.

Good Luck!
