

10 June 2015

Dear Club Convenors,

Winter League 2015/16 - Team Entries & Player Registration

Your club is hereby invited to enter teams in the HKHA Men's League for 2015/16. Enclosed are:

Form A      Club Registration form
Form B      New Player Registration form
Form C      Player Re-registration form

(These forms can also be downloaded from the HKHA website www.hockey.org.hk)

Player Registration

Please note the following registration procedures:

1. Player re-registration form (Form C) and new player registration form (Form B) must be completed with signature and submitted to the HKHA office and upload to the online registration system respectively. All players, including both new players and re-registered players, are required to upload a passport sized photo to the on-line registration system via their convenors. The photo must be in high resolution (300dpi or above) with clear facial image in JPEG format. Form submission, photos and document uploading and any changes of player details, have to be done on or before 31 July 2015. Any submission received after deadline may only be processed after HKHA has completed the processing of all applications that are submitted before the deadline that may result in some players not able to play at the start of the season due to incomplete processing of their registrations.
2. All new players must complete and sign the New Player Registration Form (Form B) as well as provide a clear and high resolution copy of the HKID card or Passport (in the case of a visiting player) and a passport sized photo for uploading to the online registration system. Missing documents/photos or any format does not follow with the above will not be accepted and may cause of delay of completion of registration process.
3. The Player Re-Registration Form (Form C) is used ONLY for players who have registered with HKHA before, clubs have to ensure player's passport sized photos is uploaded to the online system or will cause of delay of the completion of registration process.

4. For re-registration of players who have not registered for the season 2010 - 2015, submission of their ID card copies are mandatory.

Note: The above procedures apply to pre-season registration only. Any subsequent changes of shirt numbers and transfer of players during the season must be notified to the HKHA office in writing.

5. Submit ONE COPY of FORM "C" for EACH TEAM.
6. For visiting players, the Convenor has to submit the complete passport details with visa (if applicable) and date of entry into and out of Hong Kong.

To ensure proper enforcement of the player verification process by the umpires, it is a mandatory requirement for the team captains to provide the updated hard copies of the player lists with players' pictures issued by the HKHAMS to the umpires/match officials for checking before the start of each match. The players are required to show their ID cards to umpires/match officials if the players' lists are not available. Players who fail the verification process may be banned from playing for their teams.

Code of Conduct

Please be reminded that the Code of Conduct of the HKHA (a copy of which is attached) is applicable for participants at any HKHA league game, tournaments or tour or other events approved by the HKHA.
